

STARTS NEW FACTORY

SHAVER'S GROCERY NOW MANUFACTURES MACAROONS AND COTTAGE CHEESE

Under the management of H. B. McBain and H. E. Hoffer, Shaver's grocery has established a cocoanut macaroon manufactory. It has also established a factory for the production of cottage cheese and other articles of household consumption. At present these two establishments are doing a flourishing business over a large territory.

The firm sends out five automobile wagons with its products and the articles it sells such as various kinds of cheese McLaren's cheese, and Morehouse horseradish and mustard, as well as Angel City cheese. These wagons have three routes besides the Glendale routes. They go east to San Bernardino, north to Santa Barbara and south to San Diego. In those territories they do a large business.

Special care is taken with the manufacture of the macaroons, which are already getting a reputation throughout this wide territory. The firm hopes to install its macaroon bakery in a new home in the building at the corner of Glendale avenue and Third street. Everything in the way of the latest mechanical appliances for the manufacture of the cocoanut macaroons will be installed and with the new facilities there will come fresh impetus for the conquering of new territory.

The cottage cheese factory, which manufactures the brand of cottage cheese known as the "IMP" is gradually going into recognition over the same territory and gives promise of some day attaining very considerable dimensions. Both these products are Glendale enterprises and are worthy of support locally.

FORTY YEARS MARRIED

Last Tuesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. E. Z. Barnett, parents of Zoe Barnett, the well known and beautiful actress now starring in New York, and who also have three sons who are successful business men in Southern California, celebrated the fortieth anniversary of their marriage. Many friends from Los Angeles, Glendale and other points called to offer their good wishes and congratulations for continued health and happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. Barnett have recently moved to their new and beautiful home at 1209 Lomita avenue. The parlors and music room of the new home were most artistically decorated with roses and potted plants while the mantle was banked with orange blossoms and white narcissus.

After a program of songs and recitations, refreshments were served, bringing to a close a very happy evening. A memento of this occasion presented by the guests will be treasured by Mr. and Mrs. Barnett.

FROM STRICKEN BELGIUM

Mrs. R. W. Meeker, 300 E. Colorado boulevard, entertained at luncheon Friday, Madame Jules Clersayt of Mons, Belgium. Madame Clersayt and her husband, since deceased, managed to escape from Belgium, just at the beginning of the terrific fighting there. Her husband had been a government official of importance and he was put in charge of relief work for the Belgians. Since his death Mme. Clersayt has carried on that work and is also in charge of the Belgian exhibit at San Diego exposition. Mme. Clersayt and her husband were great friends of King Albert of Belgium and his family. The king presented her with a fine portrait of himself, the queen and the crown prince. This picture she has kindly presented to Mrs. Meeker. Mme. Clersayt, who was taken by Mrs. Meeker all through Glendale and Pasadena on an auto trip, says that the district resembles some parts of Belgium.

REASON FOR BIRTH REGISTRATION

The importance of registering births is recognized by many Americans now in Vienna. According to Ambassador Penfield, Americans in that city who are not in possession of certificates of birth or naturalization are being detained through the refusal of German Consuls to endorse their passport for travel in the German Empire. How many native born Californians can produce certified copies of their birth certificates? The registration of a child's birth is one of the most important events in his life.

HERE FROM SIBERIA

B. GLADSTONE, RAILROAD CONTRACTOR FROM ASIATIC RUSSIA VISITS THIS CITY

From the very heart of Asiatic Russia, where the winters are as strenuous as those in Alaska, to the mildness of Southern California is quite a change. Aware of the advantages of the Pacific climate and the advantages to be gained here in the way of education, B. Gladstone, who hails from Tchita, Siberia, some years ago sent his sons to be educated in San Francisco and now contemplates coming to California to settle.

In the course of his travels Mr. Gladstone came to Glendale to visit his old friend, Mr. S. H. Goldstein, 717 W. Fifth street. He is greatly pleased with Glendale and its surroundings. "Tchita, my home in Siberia," said Mr. Gladstone, "is an interesting place in many ways. It is a city of about 60,000 people. The district is largely agricultural. Tchita is also the center of a very rich placer gold district and some people have made fortunes in that business there."

"One of the most important undertakings in the Tchita district is one which I myself was connected. That is the railroad from Kuenga to Vladivostok, passing through Khabarovsk and Blagovestchensk. Both of these latter places are full of memories of the Russo-Japanese. At Blagovestchensk for instance the Chinese still talk ominously of the conduct of the Russian commander who drove the whole of the unarmed and unoffending Chinese population into the river and drowned them."

"This railroad opens up a vast territory and is a great boon to all those in its neighborhood. A great deal of the labor employed on this road consists of German and Austrian prisoners taken in the war. Russia holds more than a million prisoners and they are set to work at all manner of construction work. There are 40,000 German prisoners in Siberia."

"From 1906 to 1910 I lived in San Francisco. I have two sons there and one in Manila. I look forward to a time when I will be able to settle on the Pacific coast. Glendale is as nice a city as any I have seen here. It has an atmosphere of academic peace and quiet that is very resting."

WEIGHTY TRUTHS

The average American does not seem to realize the significance of such truths as these:

1. Our native forests are rapidly diminishing.
2. As a consequence our streams are drying up in summer, flooding in winter.
3. The soil is being robbed of its fertility.
4. The number of our native birds has decreased 46 per cent in the last fifteen years.
5. Insects destroy annually in this country alone $300,000,000 to $400,000,000 worth of produce.
6. It is almost a question of "Save Our Birds," or "Lose Our Trees."

NEW MILK LAW THIS YEAR

The new law requiring the pasteurization of all milk except that from tuberculin tested cows, will go into effect in October. Then it will be impossible to have a repetition of an epidemic of typhoid like the one recently experienced in Richmond, when twelve cases of typhoid occurred among customers of a dairy supplying infected milk. The larger part of the same supply served thousands of people in Berkeley, but was first pasteurized, and not a single case of typhoid occurred among the Berkeley customers. In many places pasteurization of milk has been started already, even before the law goes into effect. This is the sort of legislation that saves lives.

FRENCH ADMIRALTY ANNOUNCES THAT ONLY 695 WERE SAVED WHEN TROOPSHIP SANK

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
PARIS, March 4.—The admiralty today abandoned hope that more than 695 had been saved out of the 4000 troops that were being transported to Saloniki, on the auxiliary cruiser Provence. The whole staff of the Third Colonial Infantry regiment was lost. The greater number of the men lost belonged to the Third Colonial Infantry and quite a number to the Second Machine Gun company.

GERMAN SUBMARINES ARE EXCEEDINGLY ACTIVE IN MEDITERRANEAN WATERS

BERLIN, March 4.—German submarines sunk today two French auxiliary cruisers and one British patrol boat. This was an official announcement from the admiralty. It was added that the German submarines are very active in the Mediterranean just now.

ARTILLERY DUEL IN VICINITY OF VERDUN

FRENCH AND GERMAN GUNNERS BATTLE ALL NIGHT TOWARD NORTH OF THE FORTRESS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
PARIS, March 4.—North of Verdun the big guns of the Germans were booming all night. They were answered promptly by the French 75-millimetres, which seem fully equal to the 17-inch howitzers. The French guns threw a screen of fire in front of the positions around Douaumont, which are still the object of fighting and effectually prevented all attempts at infantry attacks.

DENOUNCES REPORT PRESIDENT WILL RESIGN

SECRETARY TUMULTY SAYS NEWSPAPER PUBLISHING STORY DISHONORS ITSELF

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 4.—The White House today denounced the report that President Wilson had resigned or was about to resign. This report was printed in several papers. Secretary Tumulty issued a statement to the following effect: "Any American newspaper publishing such a story at such a time and in such a situation as this dishonors itself."

POSTPONE McLEMORE VOTE TILL TUESDAY

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES PUTS OFF CONSIDERATION OF "ARMED MERCHANTMEN" MEASURE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 4.—The house of representatives postponed till Tuesday the vote on the McLemore resolution in connection with the armed merchantmen question. This measure is similar to that introduced by Senator Gore in the senate. President Wilson's friends stated that the president was determined to have, if possible, the house decide this question on its merits. He does not desire to have the resolution merely tabled. Feeling in the senate still runs high over Senator Gore's tactics. His changing of his resolution at the last moment is considered a very low trick.

VILLA THREATENS AMERICAN MINE

REBEL LEADER ENTERS NORTHERN SONORA—MAY ATTACK LUCKY TIGER GOLD PROPERTY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
DOUGLAS, Ariz., Gen. Villa, with 700 cavalry in two divisions, is reported today entering the district of Northern Sonora. It is said that he is threatening to attack and loot the rich Lucky Tiger mine, which is owned by Americans. Villa has sworn death and destruction to all Americans engaged in what he styles "the exploitation" of Mexican natural resources. The twenty-five American employes at the mine are preparing to flee. The American manager of the mine has appealed to Consul Cochrane at Nogales.

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
SAN FRANCISCO, March 4.—The federal authorities indicated today that they would prepare new indictments against German Consul Bopp following the dismissal of the indictment charges. Bopp and many others were indicted for breaches of American neutrality and for the "organization of a military expedition against Canada."

THE PHILIPPINES

PHILIPPINE INDEPENDENCE, BY HAROLD VENSKE OF GLENDALE HIGH SCHOOL

The Filipinos are not only incapable intellectually and economically, but they are also unfit politically. The same reasons apply for their incapacity in this field. The bulk of the population is uneducated and totally unable to take part in a government. This statement, perhaps, will be more readily appreciated when you have some definite figures. Government statistics show that in the election held July 30, 1907, in which the provincial assembly was elected, only 1.41% of the total civilized population voted. Qualifications for voters were very liberal. However, only 3% of the total population were qualified to vote and a year later (1908) the percentage of those qualified dropped to 2.81%. These figures give one an idea of conditions as they really exist. The people are ignorant politically and are at the mercy of those who rule. The native government of this vast and ignorant population which ex-Governor General Taft found to be entirely void of public opinion, lies in the hands of a political ring, consisting chiefly of mestizos. These "political bandits," a name bestowed upon them by the Manila Times, are about numerically capable of filling the different offices. This ring of politicians are the ones who control things and talk independence to the ignorant population. The Manila Times says: "They represent independence as a condition in which there will be no work and little taxes." So in reality, the meaning of independence to the Filipino masses is literally and figuratively a big question mark. The mestizo political ring is the faction that wants independence, for in it they see their absolute control of an ignorant people. These political bandits do not look upon office as a trust, a chance to serve their fellows, but look upon it as a fine chance for private graft, and a chance to rob their fellows. We are teaching the young Filipinos differently, but if we should give the islands independence and remove our leading hand all our good work would be thrown away. An oligarchy, in which the masses would be prey to a few mestizos, would result. All the uplifting and benefiting education we have been giving the Filipinos would be destroyed, for the leaders know that a people kept in ignorance will submit more readily to a radical, oppressive, domineering and exacting rule, such as they would establish. Surely we Americans could not be so cruel and thoughtless as to foster such an end.

Another thing to be considered in respect to the welfare of the Philippines is the possibility of international complications following independence. If we grant the Philippines independence we step out. There are many other nations that realize the great value of the islands, and would be only too glad to get them. Frederick Chamberlin, in his book on the Philippine problem, points out several interesting things along this line. Japan and England have a solid treaty lasting until 1921. In 1906 the Japs overran the Islands trying to turn sentiment against us. They worked on our railroads in the United States getting valuable maps. Mapped our southern border during the Madero revolution in Mexico. About this time Russia announced that her sea line would be extended 8 miles from the coast. This hurt the Jap fishing trade and things looked very threatening. However, when relations became strained between Russia and the United States over the mistreatment of American Jews, the strained relations between Russia and Japan immediately ceased. Many Jap envoys were received in St. Petersburg and rumors leaked out afterward that a Russian-Japanese alliance was effected. This throws together three of the greatest world powers, England, Russia and Japan. Upon our withdrawal from the islands these countries would send their men-of-war as in 1898 to protect their interests. That excuse would be sufficient for seizure of the islands. Thus the islands would fall in the hands of a nation who would not do what we have done in educating and developing the Filipino people; all the work and time spent by devoted missionaries in Christianizing the Filipinos, would be overthrown by the "pagan nation." Such an event would also destroy our power and commerce in the west and lower ourselves in the estimation of other nations.

The situation stands thus: If we want to see our valuable interests destroyed, the usurper close the door of

FROM EAST TO WEST

W. VAN HEEMSBERGEN, CEMENT CONTRACTOR, COMES FROM NEW YORK CITY TO GLENDALE

W. Van Heemsbergen, who has been a prominent cement building contractor in New York city for a number of years, has come to Glendale to try the climate here for the benefit of his family. He has gone to live on Ruth street, North Glendale, and is now looking round the district to ascertain what it contains for him.

"When I left New York," said Mr. Van Heemsbergen to a representative of the Glendale News, "the weather was extremely cold. The ground was bound with frost and wrapped in snow and a regular blizzard was blowing. I and my family took the boat for New Orleans and when we embarked the sailors were still chopping the ice off the decks and rigging of the steamship. They did not get rid of it entirely until we got well on our way south."

"In New Orleans we entered a new region of balmy airs and warmth. It was a pleasant change. When we got to California I asked the railway conductor where was a good place to settle. He said 'Glendale.' So I came to Glendale and from what I have seen of it I like it well. I am a cement contractor and if I find business here I will stay here."

"I was for seven years cement construction supervisor of the Standard Oil company in the Far East, with headquarters at Shanghai, and a district that stretched away up the Yang-tse-kiang and along the straits to Indo-China, to Saigon, the French capital of that territory."

"After that I came to New York and started in business for myself. I succeeded excellently there and erected many concrete buildings. One of my most recent contracts there was the large garage at 135th street. I am told there is a chance of getting some of the big work here, work such as I am an adept in—roads, bridges, arches of all kinds and every kind of extensive cement construction. In a little while I will get my bearings and I hope to remain here, as the climate suits my family to a nicety."

GOATS' MILK AND TUBERCULOSIS

At the Sea View Hospital in New York City, one hundred and twenty-five children are being fed goats' milk, in order to determine if immunity to tuberculosis may be produced by this means. A herd of goats, bred by the United States Department of Agriculture, is being used for the purpose. If the use of goats' milk will reduce tuberculosis infection in childhood, as many authorities have for so long insisted, there will undoubtedly be a great future in the goat raising industry. The experiments will be watched with interest by all health authorities.

MOSQUITO ABATEMENT DISTRICTS FORMED

Mosquito abatement districts under the new law providing for their organization are being formed in San Mateo, San Rafael, and Bakersfield, including territory in the vicinity of each of these cities. In addition to these districts, which are about ready to begin operations, steps are being taken in the organization of a district in Palo Alto and vicinity. Mr. H. L. Haehl of Palo Alto is arousing interest in the work and it is expected that the preliminaries incidental to organization will be well under way soon.

C. H. BOTT WILL MOVE

C. H. Bott, who for a number of years has conducted very successfully a book and stationery store at 576 W. Broadway, has leased the store room on Brand boulevard formerly occupied by Wm. Forsythe, dealer in dry goods, and will move to his new location about March 15. Mr. Bott, besides carrying a large stock of books and stationery, has a complete stock of kodaks and kodak supplies. Miss Sara Pollard, public stenographer, will have her office in Mr. Bott's new store.

commerce in our face, and a tyrannical rule for the Philippines, give the islands independence. If, however, we want to foster the general welfare of our country, maintain a prominent part in western affairs (commercial and otherwise), educate and develop the Filipinos into a people of some value and benefit to mankind, if this is what we want we will retain the Philippine Islands.

WILSON PRAISES COUNTRY LIFE

It is a happy circumstance that the pure air of the countryside is beginning to blow through our affairs, that by many means of quick and easy transportation the farm is being made neighbor to the city, and that the calm thought of the unheeded fields, the thought of men in little hamlets and remote homesteads, is becoming part of the thought of the nation as it never was before. We shall be a happy people only when we are a united people, when class is not set against class, when no man seeks any privilege of common service.—Woodrow Wilson.
